

SO LAST CENTURY QUIZ 3

How much do you know about the stories, people, and events that shaped the way we live today?

- 1 What was the name of the New Zealand frigate that observed British nuclear testing in the Pacific in the 1950s?
- 2 Who was New Zealand's (and the world's) first transsexual Member of Parliament?
- 3 What long-legged model advertised an ice cream, married a rock star then told us that it wouldn't happen overnight but it would happen?

Waiheke Olive Festival

What better way to summon summer than relaxing on beautiful Waiheke, tasting the island's olive oil, food and wine, with a bit of live jazz in the background? The sunny groves of Rangihoua Estate, producer of award-winning oil in its own right, has hosted this popular festival for several years now. This year, 13 producers from the island will showcase oil from their 2010 season, with special festival prices on the day.

Rangihoua Estate, Waiheke Island, November 20.
